

I want to see all airlines be required to provide oxygen, by oxygen tanks as well as concentrators, immediately, without charging exorbitant rates. The airlines provide services for all other disabilities for free for example wheelchairs and space for service dog are free. thank you